FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RYAN SIMS ANNOUNCES ALBUM RELEASE PARTY JANUARY 11, 2014

CELEBRATING RELEASE OF FIRST SOLO ALBUM

November 5, 2013 (Phoenix, AZ) Ryan Sims, Arizona's own country-rock musician and founding member of the critically acclaimed band EastonAshe, will be celebrating the release of his first self-titled solo album with an Album Release Party January 11, 2014 at Harold's Corral, 6895 E. Cave Creek Rd, Cave Creek, AZ. Tickets will be available November 11th for $25 at www.ticketmaster.com or $30 at the door.

The evening's festivities will kick off at 8:30pm with an EastonAshe reunion show, featuring past and present members of the band, playing original Ryan Sims material from their early albums. Ryan Sims will then perform his newly-released solo album in its entirety. The night will conclude with an all-star set featuring Ryan, EastonAshe members of past and present, and other well-known Arizona musicians, in a finale celebration of Ryan's album. Ticket prices include a copy of the Ryan Sims album.

Ryan Sims, Cave Creek's own self-taught guitarist, singer-songwriter has been busy in Nashville, recording and producing his first solo album. Ryan's self-titled album being released January 11th features a unique blend of original rock-infused country music, which delivers both lyrically and musically. "I decided to make this my self-titled album because it represents a more reflective period of my life when I was defining my path." Ryan wrote the music and lyrics to nine of the 10 songs on his new album, which was recorded at House of Blues Studios with Angel Crush Entertainment. Angel Crush Entertainment recorded artists such as Matchbox 20, Greenwheel and Collective Soul.
